COMMON RULES

- ✚ Dancer's age is considered with referral to the calendar year (January 1st - December 31th). Dancers who participate in Ranking Competitions that start in October will be considered with referral to the following calendar year (which means one (1) year older).
Age categories are divided as follows:

 - ✓ ADULT: All dancers from the age of seventeen (17) (Solo – Duo – Couple – Small Group – Formation - Production).
- ✚ Having reached the age limit for each category dancers pass to the older category automatically.
- ✚ Dancers use their own music piece which must be in accordance with the following requirements:
 - ✓ Music duration and pace limits in line with rules for each category;
 - ✓ Visibly exposing dancers' / group: Start Number, Nationality, Name of a Club/School, Title of the Presentation, Duration, Name and Surname, Discipline as well as Age and Dance Category.
- ✚ Dancers / Groups who fail to respect the rules will be subject to the following penalties:
 - ✓ Dancers/groups performing without a start number
 - ✓ Dancer's fall
Will be given five (5) points penalty.
 - ✓ Any competitor/group whose music duration is over/under the permitted time limit
Will be given ten (10) points penalty.
Dancers/groups who commit the following:
 - ✓ Use set (stage decorations)
 - ✓ Take off or put away their accessories/props
 - ✓ Execute Acrobatic Elements (excluding elements mentioned in a section below).
 - ✓ Fail to appear on stage after being called for the third time
Will be given 'the last place' classification penalty.
- ✚ The choreographed piece may be composed only and exclusively of the following genres:
 - ✚ CONTEMPORARY
 - ✓ Contemporary dance is a concept of dance based on the idea of ballet but created as an opposite direction to classical ballet, devoid of its rigid rules.
 - ✓ Contemporary (postmodern) dance became widespread in the early 1960s. The dance choreography was inspired by the ideas of postmodernism and sought to reject the choreography of modern dance, which, according to postmodernists, seemed too pretentious.
 - ✚ The dance form of Contemporary encourages the use of completely ordinary and everyday movements. An idea and concept plus the emphasis on using movement to express dancer's emotions or convey a story are crucial parts of choreography. It is assumed that absolutely all human movements are an expression of the dance and any part of dancer's body can be the centre of the movement.
 - ✚ When choreographing a contemporary piece for the IDF competition dancers should use techniques and artistic ideas based on the following:
 - ✓ Alexander technique
 - ✓ Feldenkrais technique
 - ✓ Pina Bausch
 - ✓ William Forsyth
 - ✓ Tricia Brown

- ✓ Ivon Rainer
 - ✓ Steve Paxton
 - ✓ Tatsumi Hijikata
 - ✓ David Zambrano
 - ✓ Contact improvisation techniques
 - ✓ Release-techniques
 - ✓ Flying-low techniques
 - ✓ Other contemporary dance artists and choreographers
- Modern Dance is the genre of dance art that arose in Germany and America in the late 19th - early 20th centuries, as a rejection of the canons of classical ballet, the embodiment of new themes and plots with original dance-plastic means. Modern dance is a genre of contrasts and thus offers an incredibly wide range of means of expression. It is a combination of rising and falling, dynamics and lyric, expression and silence.
- The characteristics of modern dance are:
- ✓ Floor elements
 - ✓ Organic movements
 - ✓ Dynamics
 - ✓ Body Control
- When choreographing a modern piece for the IDF competition dancers should use techniques and artistic ideas based on the work of the following:
- ✓ Ruth Saint-Dani, Ted Shawn
 - ✓ Martha Graham
 - ✓ Doris Humphrey
 - ✓ Charles Weidman
 - ✓ Jose Limon
 - ✓ Lester Horton
 - ✓ Kurt Yoss
 - ✓ Mary Wigman
 - ✓ Hania Holm
 - ✓ Merce Cunningham
 - ✓ Other modern dance artists and choreographers
- Dance Show Contemporary and Modern Dance choreography can be based on a chosen technique in its pure form as well as a combination of two or more of the techniques listed above.
- ✓ Music
- Accompaniment may include music, music and vocal, vocal only, element of silence, a variety of sounds as well as human speech.
- Musical choice should be an internal ingredient of the dance, a creative experiment that creates the atmosphere, helps express the story or dancer's emotions and sustain the energy of the dance.
- Use of accessories or props that are part of dancer's costume is allowed, however they must not be taken off or put away. In the case when the rule is not respected, the dancer will be classified in the last place. The rule will not be applied if a prop which is part of dancer's costume falls on a dance floor accidentally.
- Dancers are not allowed to execute any acrobatic elements. This includes elements executed in the air with horizontal, sagittal and/or longitudinal rotation. The elements that are not considered acrobatic and therefore permitted are: cartwheel, forward roll, backward roll, shoulder stand, hand support with hips and legs below the head level, head stand, bridge, wave, neck spring, head spring, shoulder spring, handstand, forward walkover and backward walkover including their variations where part of the body remains in contact with the floor. Any irregularity in this respect will result in the dancer being classified in the last place.
